

Money in Politics Workshop

November 23, 2021

Keynote: Josh McCrain, Utah University

The second Copenhagen Money in Politics workshop will be held on November 23, 2021 at the Department of International Economics, Government and Business (EGB), at Copenhagen Business School (CBS).

The purpose of the workshop series is to bring together European and American researchers in the field of money in politics. The workshop series will feature research on lobbying, campaign finance, private returns to public office, and corporate political activity.

The keynote at the second workshop will be given by Josh McCrain, Utah University.

If you want to present at the workshop, send an email with your name and an abstract to bcke.egb@cbs.dk. Note that presentation spots are limited, and CBS cannot cover costs of travel nor accommodation.

The workshop series is funded by the Carlsberg Foundation
